High School Graduates

Alexis May Cline is graduating Southwest Career & Technical Academy credentialed in her major of Interior Design. Alexis is awarded the Millennial Scholarship plus awards for her roles in Speech and Debate. The AP Government Award was received for her participation in the State Championship of a Mock hearing where she argued on behalf of the 14th Amendment and Bill of Rights to institute constitutional change. Alexis remembers Grace Sunday School as early as her Preschool Pond days where she sang the Water Buffalo Song and added coins into the giraffe bank for missions. Alexis is a beautiful blessing still serving her church at the sound board during worship.

Carter Ryan Overley is graduating from Nevada State High School. Carter completed his first year of college while attending High School and is receiving an Honors Award and Regents Graduation Award. Carter plans to attend the College of Southern Nevada in the fall.

Ethan Born-Helmuth is graduating from Explore Knowledge Academy High School. Ethan attended several college classes during his Jr. and Sr. years in High School. Ethan plans to attend UNLV this fall and major in Engineering.

Jack Asylkhan Kotchka-Smith is graduating from the Las Vegas Academy of the Arts. Jack was awarded several accolades for instrumental and choral performances as a dual major. He has attended Grace Presbyterian Church his entire childhood and remembers playing double bass with Dr. David Dorway and loved the youth mystery trips. Jack has been accepted to attend the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music in the fall as a Music Performance Major.
