

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures,
He leads me beside quiet waters, He restores my soul.
He guides me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

-Psalm 23

Call to Worship

LEADER: I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Because I live, you also will live.

PEOPLE: God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble, therefore we will not fear.

LEADER: The eternal God is our dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms.

PEOPLE: Let us worship God.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF PHYLLIS V. NOBLITT

Phyllis V. Noblitt, 91, passed away peacefully with her children by her side at Nathan Adelson Hospice on May 6, 2022, in Las Vegas, NV.

Phyllis was born in Freeport, IL, in 1931 to the late Eva and Burrell Oblander. She graduated from Wayne State College in Wayne, NE, in 1953 with a degree in Education and Music. She moved to Las Vegas, NV, in 1957. Phyllis sang in church choirs all her life and met her future mother-in-law, whose son was home on leave, when she joined a choir in Las Vegas. She married Roger Noblitt in 1958 and her first son, David Noblitt, was born in Alaska. They returned to Las Vegas where her daughter, Laura Buencamino, and younger son, Paul Noblitt, were both born.

Phyllis was a retired school teacher, having taught in Las Vegas for 30 years. She was an active member of the Grace Presbyterian Church, singing in the choir for a majority of the 60 years she attended. Her other passions included International PEO, Mesquite Club Inc., Daughters of the Nile, Salvation Army Women's Auxiliary and other numerous social/charitable organizations. She was a true friend to many in her community. Phyllis is survived by her loving children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be given in Phyllis' honor and memory to:
